

If you would like an extra homework challenge, have a look below. You do not have to complete every challenge.

The chili rating suggests the difficulty of the task, or the challenge it might offer.

Make a model of a famous landmark in London. It can be from 1666 or now.	Write a poem or a song about fireworks or Christmas. Try to use adjectives and rhyming words	Design and make a board game focused on The Great Fire of London.
Create a comic strip to retell the Great Fire of London. Use pictures and speech bubbles	Make a list of all the materials you can find around your home and their properties. Count the objects you find and count how many objects are made from the same material.	Keep a diary for a week like Samuel Pepys. Remember to use conjunctions, adjectives and write in the past tense.
Use the internet to research the Great Fire of Edinburgh 1824. Make notes of the similarities and differences.	Create a leaflet about life in London in 1666.	Research and find out how Christmas is celebrated around the world.
Create a poster to promote fire safety.	Go on an Autumn nature hunt and see how many things you can find that begin with the first letter of your name.	Create 5 quiz questions about The Great fire of London for your friends.